udicial, Civil and Protective Organizations Determined to Prevent Any Possible Attempts at Corrupt Practices -Colonel Roosevelt Believes Results of Today's Voting Will Be of First Importance in Determining Outcome of His Whole Campaign

CHICAGO, April 8.—As the final preliminary to the Illois presidential, state and county primaries, judicial, civil e protective organizations tonight instructed and sent out e than 10,000 trained workers and investigators to man the ts and prevent disorder and possible attempts at corrupt actices. Of this number several thousand will be at work Chicago from 6 a. m. until the polls close at 5 in the afternoon.

A record vote is expected. In Chicago it is expected the tal vote in both parties will exceed 300,000 out of a total gistration of 444,000.

The total Republican vote throughout the state may run high as 450,000. On the Democratic side the total vote will between 250,000 and 300,000 it is predicted.

Managers for President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and Senor La Follette on the Republican side, tonight issued final peals to their followers and all expressed confidence of tory.

It was expected that the fight between Governor oodrow Wilson and Speaker Champ Clark on the Demoatic ticket would be close.

AFAYETTE, Ind. April 8.—All day Colonel Roosevelt fought as hard he could for victory in tomorrow's sidential primary in Illinois. In opinion, as he expressed it today, result of the fight will be of first stance in determining the outcome is whole campaign.

When it was all over, and the colel was ready to board his train to out of the state, he said:

"My hat is in the ring, and it's ing to stay in the ring."

n one of his speeches today the onel said:

"We look to Illinois to set the key- e of this campaign. Illinois ds in the most important position any state in this campaign."

n these other states, he charged, -supporters have been defeated by tactics of federal officeand by other means.

"If you will give me a fair e," he said, "I shall have nothing say, but if you are for me and the es raised you as against me, I n have a great deal to say."

The colonel assailed his opponents without gloves. He assailed Congressman McKinley, campaign manager for President Taft, in his own district and put himself on record as opposed to President Taft in regard to reciprocity.

Through Opponents' Districts.

The colonel made nearly a dozen fighting speeches. The days run took him through the district of Congressman McKinley and former Speaker Cannon. He delivered one speech under the shadow of McKinley's home in Champaign, and a few hours later was whirled in an automobile by Mr. Cannon's dwelling in Danville, and made a speech a few blocks away. After leaving the state he made several speeches in Indiana. The crowds which heard Colonel Roosevelt today were large.

In speaking of reciprocity Colonel Roosevelt declared that, as far as he had any power, he would not sanction the reintroduction of such a measure as the Canadian reciprocity passed by congress. The farmers, he said, should not be required to pay anything for an agreement like that.

It was at Decatur that the colonel referred to Congressman McKinley.

"My attention was called this morning," he said, "to a statement emanating from Mr. McKinley, in which he attacks me for coming into his district, and states that they did not come into my district as they were welcome to, and that I asked as favors that certain men be sent to the convention. That is false, which the man writing it knew to be falsehood. I have asked for no favors of any kind and will accept none from my opponents.

Regarding Progressives.

"And, more. In this article, Mr. McKinley says he is a Progressive. Well, if Mr. McKinley is Progressive, I do not know the brand. Mr. McKinley in this fight is heading the old reactionary machine. He is standing against the interests of the people. He is standing as the representative of privilege and special interest. He is associated with Mr. Penrose of Pennsylvania, Mr. Gallinger of New Hampshire, Messrs. Guggenheim and Evans of Colorado, Mr. Cox of Ohio and Mr. Lorimer of your own state. If he is a Progressive, they are Progressives. They are just about as much Progressives, one as the other."

The platform from which Colonel Roosevelt spoke in Danville was so situated that the sun was directly in his eyes. He used his hand as an eyeshade for a time and then put on his hat.

"That's the same old hat," some one in the crowd called out.

"That's right, it's the same old hat," the colonel replied. It was at this point that he said his hat was in the ring to stay.

Colonel Roosevelt will open his Pennsylvania campaign tomorrow. He is to reach Pittsburg at 5:25 o'clock in the morning, and expects to rest most of the day. In the evening he will deliver in Exposition hall a speech, and during the next two days will cover a large section of the state.

Ready to Fight Again, if Beaten.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 8.—In a speech at Peru, Ind., tonight, Colonel Roosevelt said that if he were beaten in his present fight he would make another one. In addressing a crowd at the railway station at Peru he said:

"If after hearing me you decide against me, very well. I'll try it ago another time and try to get you."

It was nearly 9 o'clock when the colonel reached Fort Wayne after making several short speeches on the way from Danville, Ill. He passed through the ninth and eleventh congressional districts of Indiana which already have selected delegates to the Chicago convention, and made his principal speech in this the twelfth district, which will select delegates next week.

In speaking here, Colonel Roosevelt charged that unfair tactics had been used to defeat him in this state.

"Our opponents apparently are willing," he said, "to proceed to any lengths to nullify the will of the people. When they descend to methods of that sort, they forfeit all right to represent the Republican party or bind it. Apparently they are trying to rival this condition by the methods they are adopting in Kentucky at the present time."

Want Men Who Stay Put.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 8.—The attendance of many residents of the Soldiers home caused Colonel Roosevelt to talk of the Civil war and Lincoln in his final speech today in Illinois. "In those days," he said, "a soldier was always interested to see whether a recruit would stand fire or run.

"It made no difference what was his religion or creed or whether he was a merchant or a bricklayer," said Colonel Roosevelt, "but it did make a difference if he would stay put in a battle. That's what we want now—men that will stay put when we put them in places of trust and high honor."

President Taft, he said, was trying to revise a saying by Lincoln and it takes a mighty big man to do that.

"Lincoln declared this to be a government of the people, by the people and for the people," said Colonel Roosevelt, "but President Taft is in favor of government of the people by the privileged classes for the bosses."

Against Taft's Reciprocity Plan.

MATTOON, Ill., April 8.—Colonel Roosevelt put himself on record today as directly opposed to President Taft on the subject of reciprocity. He declared he would never sanction the introduction of such a measure as the Canadian reciprocity bill passed by congress last year.

To a large crowd at Decatur the colonel made one of the most vigorous speeches of his campaign.

"My desire was to support the administration on every point where I possibly could," said Colonel Roosevelt, "and at first I supposed that the Canadian reciprocity agreement was one which I could support and was glad to do so.

"I have looked into it carefully and under no circumstances as far as I have any power, will I ever sanction the reintroduction of such an agreement as that reciprocity agreement.

"I am perfectly willing and I am sure I speak for the farmers when I say it that the farmers should pay their fair share but they are not to be required to pay everything for an agreement like that.

"And in any future tariff arrangement of any kind I wish to see it made as a square deal in the interest of all. I wish to see the farmer have his full measure of protection with the business man with the wage worker and when it comes to protecting the manufacturer, I wish to give him proper protection but I wish us to have some governmental means by which we shall see that the profit does not all stop in the office, that some of it gets down through.

Apply Principles of Square Deal.

"In other words, I simply want to apply the principles of the 'square deal' on the tariff as elsewhere."

The colonel then turned to the subject of corporation control and declared that if the rich men of the country were wise they would support the policies which he advocates.

"If those men of great wealth," he said, "were wise they would be first to support me in the proposition that we shall have lodged in the hands of governmental authorities the power to supervise and control the business of these great wealth in such fashion as to insure that it is used for and not against the interest of the people. If those men had their way this country 50 years hence would be a mighty poor place for anyone to live in and it would be the worst of all possible place for their own descendants to live in."

Laughter greeted a new metaphor the colonel made while speaking of Panama.

Somebody asked me why I did not get an agreement with Colombia. They might just as well ask me why I do not nail cranberry jelly to the wall. It would not be my fault or the fault of the nail. It would be the fault of the jelly."

Able Politicians Helping Taft.

DECATUR, Ill., April 8.—In the district of Congressman McKinley, manager of President Taft's campaign, Colonel Roosevelt today took up the cudgel against the congressman. The first of his six speeches was made at Clinton, where he said:

"I understand Mr. Taft's manager, McKinley, said some time ago that this district was for Mr. Taft to a man, but apparently he was mistaken. I understand he told you last week that Mr. Taft was not a politician and that he and the other Taft workers groaned every day because he was not.

"But Mr. Taft's whole campaign is intrusted to as thoroughgoing politicians as there are in the United States. Messrs. Tawney, Barnes, Penrose, Gallinger, Cannon, Guggenheim, Lorimer and others with whom Mr. McKinley is associated.

"Mr. McKinley need not groan about finding himself lonely for lack of associates who are politicians. The professional bread and butter politicians are all for Mr. Taft. There never was a straighter lineup than this between the politicians and the plain people, and at last here in Illinois the plain people have the chance to speak for themselves."

Ignored Warning About Lorimer.

"We look to Illinois to set the keynote of this campaign. Illinois stands in the most important position of any state in this campaign."

While in Clinton, Colonel Roosevelt said he had been requested on Saturday not to attack Senator Lorimer in his Springfield speech last night. A delegation from the Springfield Roosevelt club which arranged the meeting told him an attack on Lorimer might injure him politically in that district, since the senator had many supporters there.

The colonel said he disliked the request flatly. He added that if he lost every supporter he had in Illinois he would speak his mind on that subject. The colonel smiled as he said that when he made his remarks about Lorimer the applause was the loudest of the evening.

INTERVENTION IS NOT THOUGHT OF

Army Plans for Disposal of Troops From Philippines Were Made Long Ago

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The working out of plans long ago made public for the distribution in this country of the entire Philippine troops undoubtedly has caused a revival of rumors that a large part of the United States army is to be assembled on the Mexican border.

Somewhat impatient the general staff officers today ignored the rumors pointing to the various statements issued from the war department the last as recently as April 2, showing the dates of sailing of the six regiments which are scheduled to end their tropical service in the Philippines during 1912.

Of these regiments the Fourteenth cavalry entrained today from San Francisco enroute to Fort Clark and Fort McIntosh, Tex. The Third infantry, now afloat is bound for New York ports. The other regiments will embark at Manila on various dates until as late as June 15. It is not settled where they will be stationed, but it is expected that one and perhaps two will be located in the southwest.

These facts were announced some time ago and can have no connection with recent developments in Mexico. The rumors today of another concentration of troops on the border are declared to have no more basis than the fact that some army officers are scouting in Texas for eligible camp sites for such returning Philippine troops as may be assigned to the department of Texas.

The general staff is quietly keeping every branch of the military service in readiness for instant response to a call for a force upon the border.

It is pointed out that this is the principal function of the general staff and is by no means to be taken as an indication of an impending campaign against Mexico. On the other hand it is positively asserted that the president has not wavered in the slightest degree from his announced intention to keep hands off in Mexico as long as American life and property in that country are duly regarded.

ESCAPING CONVICT KILLED

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 8.—Manuel Rodriguez, a convict at Folsom penitentiary, was fatally wounded late today in a break for liberty. He died tonight. He had run half a mile when a bullet from a guard's rifle overtook him.

Rodriguez, with others, was working on a new prison wall. Suddenly he jumped from a scaffolding and ran for a cluster of hills north of the prison. After calling to him to stop, the guards opened fire, and he dropped at the foot of the nearest hill.

Rodriguez was serving a sentence for burglary.

U. S. JUDGE PREDICTS A CONFLICT IF FOLLOWERS OF RED FLAG KEEP ON

SEATTLE, April 8.—The meeting of 3000 Socialists and Industrial Workers of the World last night headed by a red flag was made the subject of an address by United States Judge Cornelius H. Hanford in the federal court today, the judge predicting a conflict between the adherents of the red flag and those of the American flag. During the regular motion calendar in court permission was asked to present two applications for citizenship. After asking the usual questions, Judge Hanford said:

The last step in completing your naturalization will be taking the oath of allegiance to the constitution and in taking that you will give your pledge of loyalty to the government.

Only yesterday there was a procession marching in the streets of Seattle behind a flag which was not the mingled colors of our nation, only the blood red color.

Recently other processions have marched behind that red flag in the streets of Seattle, in which men enjoying the rights of citizenship of this country were included. Some of them were born in this county, others have acquired the rights of citizenship by professing and swearing allegiance to the constitution.

"If these disloyal demonstrations continue the time will come when there will be a conflict between those who march behind the red flag and those who take their stand under the flag representing the lawful government of this nation."

CHICAGO BOARD STOPS "CORNERS"

Says Patten's Was "Beneficent" but Made Rules Prohibiting Recurrence

WASHINGTON, April 8.—When James A. Patten operated in May wheat in 1909, he did not conduct a corner of wheat, several prominent grain operators told the house committee of agriculture today.

Instead of cornering wheat and holding out for enormous profits, Mr Patten performed a "beneficent action" according to John C. F. Merrill, president of the Council of Grain Exchange, who acted as spokesman for the Chicago board of trade and other wheat and corn exchanges.

Mr Patten was exonerated of collecting undue profits. His deal was in May wheat, Mr. Merrill said, but he closed it out in April and by doing so, sold at a time and a price that prevented exportation of wheat and consequent importation of grain to supply American consumption. The millers got the big profit, Mr Merrill said, and raised the price of wheat 25 cents over the price Patten got.

Mr Patten committed no act that was not entirely justifiable.

"You can go back to the operations of Joseph 3,500 years ago," said Mr. Merrill. "The same thing was done then and has been done ever since."

The Chicago men declared they had enacted rules to prevent the recurrence of a corner in any grain. Mr. Merrill explained that if it became apparent a man had control of so much grain that men who had sold to him were unable to deliver, the board appointed three men to fix a proper commercial price and arrange for delivery plus a 5 per cent penalty.

PROVIDES FOR PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Full publicity of contributions and expenditures in the nomination of candidates for president and vice president at regular intervals before the nomination committee meets and a final statement within 30 days after each convention, are proposed in a bill introduced today by Representative Henry of Texas, who prepared it in collaboration with Representative Rucker of Missouri.

The bill would provide that the president, chairman, secretary, manager or others in charge of any political headquarters, bureau or a committee of any party seeking to "influence or secure" the nomination of any person for president or vice president should file with the secretary of the senate an itemized account of the expenses of the campaign every 15 days.

The bill also would require the name and address of all persons to whom contributions were distributed in amounts of $10 or more, and the aggregate sum of all money distributed in amounts less than $10.

CRISIS IS NEAR

rapidly is assuring its normal state. Street cars have resumed service in the comparatively small flooded district of the city.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The weather bureau tonight issued this special river bulletin:

The Ohio river at Cairo is falling slowly and will continue to fall at about the same rate for the remainder of the week. After that time it will fall more rapidly. The stage at Shawneetown on Monday was 47.3 feet and the crest stage will not be more than a trifle over 46 feet within a day or so.

"The Mississippi river is falling from Helena northward, the fall at Helena being due to a break in the levee at Modoc, a few miles below, and also to those near Memphis. It is not probable there will be any further rise. At Memphis the river has fallen 16 feet from the high water mark of Saturday and local flood conditions are improving rapidly.

"The river will continue to rise below Helena."

Aged Refugees Ill From Exposure.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 8.—Rescue boats were busy tonight bringing from Wyanoke, Ark., refugees who had been marooned since the levee broke, 12 miles south of Memphis, Saturday. Many were thinly clad and all were suffering from hunger and thirst.

Several hundred had arrived tonight and it was expected that by morning the number would be not less than 1,000. The first of the refugees to be rescued was an assembly of about 100 persons. They were in a church where they had taken refuge when the levee broke. Many of the aged were seriously ill from exposure and lack of food.

ST. The new answer says in the recent election of directors, the representatives of the Standard Oil company tried to vote by proxies a majority of Waters-Pierce stock with a view to putting Standard Oil representatives in charge.

The answer charges that the "pretended dissolution of the Standard Oil trust is a farce, a disguise and a pretext" and that the relations of the parent body with the subsidiary concerns are practically unchanged.

Y. W. C. A. BANQUET A GREAT SUCCESS

Prominent Workers Attend and Give Stirring Talks. New Building Discussed

That numbers and enthusiasm go hand in hand was splendidly proved last night at the first banquet of the members of the Y. W. C. A. of Colorado Springs. The association headquarters in the Delcrafft building was crowded and even with covers laid for more than 250 there were still those who wished to attend who could not owing to lack of room.

Miss Edith A. Bigelow president of the association, in charge of the program of speeches and music after the banquet. She welcomed the guests and expressed the many pleasure it afforded an present and of the opportunities of the Y. W. C. A. She paid tribute to those who have contributed time, effort and money toward the building, as stated and said that although it was delayed, the day is near at hand when the hopes of its friends will be fulfilled.

The gifts to the local Y. W. C. A. from the National training school, Miss Dice the first general secretary, her successor Miss McCulloch and the lunch room director Miss Judd, as enumerated met with hearty applause from the members. The friendly atmosphere they have created at association headquarters was thus striking demonstration.

Mrs. William S. Ward Talks.

The first speaker was Mrs. William Shaw Ward of Denver, chairman of the West central territorial committee of the national board of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Ward said she had whole interest in her heart as she said no little else except Y. W. C. A. work the last two years. She outlined the great advance made in the international and national work in the last five years in the territorial that was adopted.

At Indianapolis last spring said Mrs. Ward the third Biennial convention heartily and unanimously indorsed the recommendation "That a building be erected and equipped in New York city to be the general headquarters of the Young Women's Christian associations of America and the home of the National Training school that the field assume the responsibility for furnishing the Building. It is proposed that association members be assessed 10 cents and board members $5. This will pay one-half the furnishings and the other half will be secured from the field at large.

Miss Dodge who is president of this great organization has mighty faith in God and in us and she seeks for faith with time strength a great love and noble gifts of money. We must not fail her, you and I."

In closing Mrs. Ward said:

"Oh, it's a great body of women and I'm so stirred with pride that I feel like the colored preacher, who said 'Women am de backbone o dis vere church and de backbone am rapidly comin' to de front.'"

Praises Summer Conferences

Miss Frances Cross, traveling secretary for the city associations in Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming, who will spend this week in Colorado Springs inspecting the local Y. W. C. A. work, spoke of the conference to be held at Cascade in June. She compared the changes in Y. W. C. A. conferences in the 15 years with the first one led by Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist. Every summer now 10 conferences are held in various parts of the United States. The Bible is made an irresistibly interesting book and the mission study is an absorbing one. She told a fascinating story of 10 days spent at the Cascade conference combining missionary studies with the delightful recreation features and closed with the hope that many would attend from the Colorado Springs association.

The Rev. James H. Franklin, who had the distinction of being the only man present, was the last speaker. He was introduced by Miss Brinley as "the friend of the Y. W. C. A. whom we regret is soon to leave us." Dr. Franklin saw that he felt "not overwhelmed but outnumbered—in a class by himself."

Dr. Franklin gave a helpful and earnest address on "The Association As a Social Center and a Social Force." Some of his sentences were sermons, as, for instance, "Christianity is bigger than any church." "There should be a more practical understanding of religion and true Christianity." "It is a fine thing to give a cup of cold water to a consumptive, but far better to give him the means of prevention:" "It is a kind act to give a working girl a good meal at low cost, but it ought to be made a crime for a man to offer a girl only $2 or $3 for her wages." "The association should demand that the girls have better wages, so the Y. W. C. A. will not have to support them;" "A new religious vision is needed on the subject of wages." Dr. Franklin characterized the Y. W. C. A. as "A wholesome, social center and a wholesome, social force."

An enjoyable portion of the program was the musical numbers. Mrs. John Speed Tucker sang Reinecke's "Spring" (Frühling) violin obligato by Mrs. George M. Howe, and Miss Evalyn Lennox at the piano.

Mrs. Howe delightfully rendered a Spanish dance by Rehfeld, with Miss Lennox accompanying.

The association rooms were completely filled with long tables beautifully decked with choice flowers through the generosity of the florists and other friends. A large corps of volunteer young women served the meal.

The ones occupying the first at the speakers' table were Miss Brinley, Mrs. William Shaw Ward, Miss Frances Cross, Dr. Franklin, Mrs. Francis W. Goddard, Mrs. Franklin E. Brooks, Mrs. William C. Robinson, Mrs. William Strieby, Miss Rhoda McCulloch and Miss Catherine Gregg.

Detective Baughn of Atlanta, in applying for the warrant, exhibited as evidence a diamond studded pocket knife covered with blood which had been identified as belonging to Mr. Beach and which he was known to have had in his possession on the night of the stabbing.

A pearl ring and back comb belonging to Mrs. Beach and also covered with blood were produced. All these articles are said to have been found on the driveway on the opposite side of the house from the spot where Mrs. Beach said she was attacked, and between the Beach residence and that of Joseph Harriman.

Recipes for Wrinkles and Red Complexions

(From Art and Nature)

Of all the beauty recipes in my scrap book, here are two that have always given complete satisfaction.

Wrinkle Remover.—One ounce powdered acrolite, dissolved in ½ pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotion. It brings instantaneous results.

Face Powder.—Pure mercolized wax, applied at night like cold cream, only not rubbed in, wash off in the morning. It causes the worn-out scarf skin to come off in tiny almost invisible flakes, a little each day, until the fresh young under-skin is wholly in evidence. The beautiful rose-tinted complexion thus obtained is not to be compared with one made over with cosmetics. An ounce of the wax is sufficient.

The ingredients named are inexpensive and can be found in any drug store.—Louise Le Blanc.

TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1912.

FOR THE Y. W. C. A.

NEXT Saturday evening at Perkins Hall a concert will be given by Miss Trott's Student Orchestra. Ordinarily this announcement would be confined to the amusements column, but the fact that the entire proceeds will be applied to the fund for the construction of a new building for the Young Women's Christian Association is sufficient reason for a special plea to the people of Colorado Springs to patronize the concert to the full extent of the seating capacity of the house.

For the information of those who may not know of the place which the Y. W. C. A. fills in Colorado Springs we may say that it is a very important factor in the lives of the young women of this city, especially those who are dependent for a livelihood on their own efforts. Its opportunities for usefulness have been plain for a long time, but only within recent years has it been able to meet them, even in measurable degree. Some time ago the Y. W. C. A. solicited public subscriptions, the object of which was the purchase of a lot at the corner of Nevada Avenue and Kiowa Street and the erection of a building commensurate with its needs. The public response was gratifying; the lot has been bought and work on the building will be started in the near future. When completed and equipped this building will do for the young women of Colorado Springs what the building of the Young Men's Christian Association does for the young men—that is, it will provide living rooms, rest and recreation rooms—in short, a home for those to whom circumstances have denied a home of their own.

In this instance the appeal for support is especially justified because of the extraordinary merit which may be expected in the performance. Miss Trott has devoted a large portion of her time and attention to the training of her orchestra, and her efforts have been rewarded by unusual devotion on the part of its members. They had contemplated a performance for their own benefit, but willingly acquiesced when asked to give one for the Y. W. C. A. In the opinion of the most competent musical critics in Colorado Springs they are quite capable of presenting a program which will entertain their patrons and more than repay the expenditure of time and effort involved.

We hope that the performance at Perkins Hall next Saturday evening will be fully attended, and frankly assure buyers of tickets that they not only will receive the worth of their money, but that their expenditure will aid a worthy cause.

"DAILY DOINGS"

LAST year the rejuvenated Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce launched, as one of its forms of publicity, a weekly publication called "Daily Doings in the Pikes Peak Region." This was a program, arranged in daily sequence for the summer season, of the principal events hereabouts, and it was published especially for the benefit of our visitors. The edition amounted to not less than 5,000 copies weekly, and occasionally even more, and advertisements were accepted sufficient to defray the cost of publication.

"Daily Doings" was an immediate success in the Pikes Peak region, just as similar publications have been in Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, and other centers of tourist travel. The reason was that it actually filled a long-felt want, in the literal and not figurative sense of that term. It was the first publication, and it remains today the only one, that supplies to our summer visitors the information as to where to go and what to see for which they are daily seeking.

"Daily Doings" is to be continued throughout the coming summer under the immediate direction of the Advertising Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The actual business of publishing and solicitation of advertisements has been turned over to the Western Advertising Agency, who are authorized to attend to these details, subject to the approval of the Chamber of Commerce. This arrangement was made because it promised to afford a more extensive circulation of the publication, and thus largely increase its value to the public.

We believe in the Chamber of Commerce most emphatically as the medium through which the greater welfare of the Pikes Peak region will be attained, and we commend its weekly program of events of the summer season. "Daily Doings" as the only official and authoritative publication of its kind. The Advertising Committee of this organization guarantees that not less than 5,000 copies of each week's issue will be distributed throughout the season in a way that will obtain the fullest publicity. Such a publication ought to be, and certainly will be, supported locally in the largest possible degree.

In an editorial relative to the work of the school nurse in Colorado Springs, printed yesterday, an unfortunate typographical error changed the word "many" to "mean" in this sentence: "The value of the work is best attested by the fact that it is most appreciated where it is best understood—that is, by the many mothers who have been aided in restoring their children to health by the advice and cooperation of the school nurse." It is hardly probable that the sentence as printed was literally construed by our readers, however, we take this opportunity of making sure.

THE TROTT ORCHESTRA.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

The various appearances of the Trott student orchestra have impressed on our audiences the fact that these young musicians have something to say and say it.

Their confidence, tone and rythm improve with each performance, and they have reached a point that warrants their giving a concert in which they are the central attraction.

The Colorado Springs Musical club is especially interested in Miss Trott's and Mr Dietrich's orchestras, as the club recognizes that these organizations of young people are the natural "feeders" for the Colorado Springs Musical club orchestra, the new venture, so successfully launched this season.

The club takes this opportunity to express its approval and to ask for the patronage of the public for the concert to be given by Miss Trott and her orchestra for the building fund of the Y. W. C. A. in Perkins hall on the evening of April 13, at 8 o'clock.

"MEDICAL FREEDOM."

To the Editor of The Gazette:

In order that the fair-minded citizens of Colorado Springs who have read the letter in the Open Parliament of the April 7 issue of The Gazette may be correctly and authentically informed as to what outfit comprises the leaders in the National League for Medical Freedom, I beg to enumerate them below:

B. O. Flower, Boston—President and one of the founders of the National League for Medical Freedom. Flower is ex-president of the R. C. Flower Medicine company, a mail order MEDICAL FAKE founded by the notorious quack and swindler, R. C. Flower. R. C. Flower is a "graduate" of the notorious American Health college recently exposed in connection with Carson, the Kansas City quack. While B. O. Flower was owner and manager of the Arena, that magazine carried advertisements of such frauds as the J. L. Stephens morphine cure (exposed in "The Great American Fraud"), the New York Institute of Physicians and Surgeons (put out of business by the government), Welch's magic tea, etc.

C. S. Carr, M. D., Columbus, O.—Member of the advisory board of the National League for Medical Freedom. Carr has been in the employ of the Peruna concern for years. He is editor of a pseudo-medical sheet in which some of the worst medical frauds in the country have been advertised. Carr does a mail order medical business of his own, selling what he calls "tissue remedies."

A. F. Stephens, M. D., St. Louis—Member of the advisory board of the National League for Medical Freedom. Stephens was second vice president of the Converse Chemical company, a St. Louis nostrum concern, which, a few years ago, tried to get advertising space in exchange for its treasury stock, and offered to give away one share of stock with every bottle of its remedy.

The above are only a few of the leaders in the National League for Medical Freedom and I can name many others, but for lack of space I shall not dwell on them further here. In these days of enlightenment I am sure I should not feel honored to be a coworker and member of this "league" under such an "honorable" executive staff.

Recently Dr. Bass of Denver, mentioned among other things at the Majestic theater, at the meeting of the National League for Medical Freedom, that "we have 500 men and women on our lecture bureau, working without salary or pay." I presume this means they are defending the National League for Medical Freedom by their speeches without salary, but I am sure that those officers and members above mentioned who are interested in patent medicine concerns do not hold these interests without salary or because it is humanitarian to do so.

In regard to the "medical greed and madness" spoken of by Mr. Capshaw, particularly in relation to "compulsory treatment" of our school children, it would be well for him to become acquainted with the fact that the school board in Colorado Springs has forbidden the school nurse to recommend or suggest the name of any practitioner, even when the parent expressly asks her to do so, and this has been one of her initial instructions.

In view of the above, I trust our worthy doctor will reconsider his accusations and be guided by irrefutable facts.

GETTING HISTORY STRAIGHT.

From the New York Evening Mail.

It has been shown that Washington was not the real author of his farewell address, nor Ulysses of his doctrine, nor Blackstone of his law. Presently we shall find out that Light never had the disease nor Moses and Dives a line on anything. And perhaps St. Vitus never danced.

A PRECEDENT.

From the Kansas City Times.

When Washington resigned the command of the army in 1783 he announced to congress that he was "taking leave of all the employments of public life." His announcement he intended to mean that he would not again accept office.

Five years later when he was urged to become a candidate for the presidency he answered on this ground that his previous declaration would be held against him "by the world and posterity." He wrote to Hamilton, "might possibly accuse me of inconsistency."

Washington, Madison and Jefferson agreed with him that one term [illegible]

Restful Trash

By WALT MASON

I learn to read the foolish books—idle of blood and thunder, he who but in classics looks makes a common, grievous blunder. Read Nick Carter when you're blue, and your grief will soon have vanished. Oh, I don't know what I'd do if the rotten books were banished! Tired of reading Vital Truth and the books of stately diction, how I revel in Old Sleuth and the yellow covered fiction! He who sticks to noble tomes, books profound and dull as blazes, he who never gaily roams down the Sherlockholmes mazes, grows himself as dry as dust and as sodden as the turf is, and some day a windy gust blows his carcass off the surface. He is like a man who dwells on the roof of some sky scraper, all remote from human wells, human kick and human caper. So I blithely spend my cash for the punk and worthless story, and I read the thrilling trash, full of murders raw and gory; when it's soothed my savage breast with its fearsome plot and title, then I turn again with zest to the book that's Truly Vital.

CENTERSHOTS

By ED HOWE

A young wife shouldn't talk all the time about her baby; occasionally she should say a good word for its father.

A verdict of "not guilty" is not a victory when it is not being accused.

In settling most questions, you must consider how others look at it, not how you look at it.

No one admires a fighting hen, but many people will pay an admission to see a good rooster fight.

Keep your eyes open; there are bargains, as well as old and tiresome things, passing in the road.

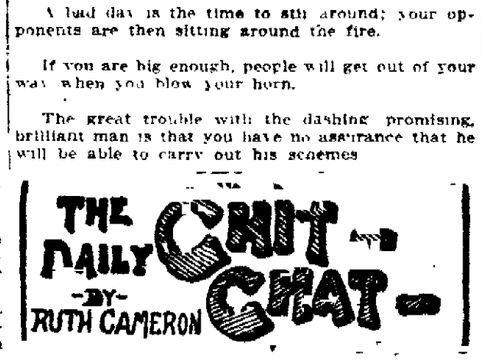
You are often whipped unfairly, still, people only know that you are whipped.

There will always be dissatisfied leaders to start new revolts, and hordes of worthless men to whom the revolution with its excitement and loot, will be a luxury. Therefore if revolution will not be a luxury to you, enlist on the side of order.

A bad day is the time to sit around; your opponents are then sitting around the fire.

If you are big enough, people will get out of your way when you blow your horn.

The great trouble with the dashing, promising, brilliant man is that you have no assurance that he will be able to carry out his schemes.



Right in our very respectable neighborhood there lives a woman who is a cruelly abused slave. No, not a slave in the old sense, nor a slave in the new sense of "white slaves," nor even a slave to her husband or children. This woman is simply what I call an obsession slave. That is, she's the unhappy tortured vassal and victim of the obsessions which she herself sets up as masters over herself.

Do I fail to make myself clear? Well, suppose I become concrete. This woman has a very kind and devoted husband. He is occasionally called away on business trips and, on the last trip, his customary biweekly letter failed to come on one occasion. His wife at once became obsessed of the idea that he did not love her any longer. She brooded over this idea, amassed evidence to prove it, became absolutely convinced of it, and in the few days in which she did not hear from him, actually worried herself almost sick. At the end of the week two letters came together; the first had been missent by the postal authorities. We had told her all the time that something like this was the cause of the delay, but she was so completely under the domination of her obsessions that she could not use her reason or her common sense.

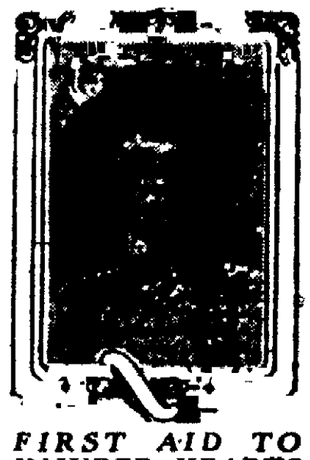
So much for one example of her slavery. She has other obsessions on many other subjects and I find her in the enslaved state sadly often.

This woman is an exaggerated case of obsession slavery, but I think a great many of us suffer in lesser degree from this mental disease. For that is what it is. We allow an idea to take possession of us and we become absolutely incapable of using reason on the subject. And that is not healthy or normal. We get an idea that we are going to lose our position; that some dear one no longer loves us; that we are losing our mental keenness, or our grip on business, or our ability in some direction; that people dislike us or regard us with aversion; and we begin to hunt for evidence to support this idea. And in this kind of hunting one is always sure of bagging plenty of game.

By and by something happens to completely disprove our fears. Our employer gives us an unasked raise; the loved one offers some unusual and unmistakable proof of affection; we demonstrate our mental power or our grip on business or our talent, in some way indisputable even to ourselves; or we are brought face to face with some unexpected proof of our popularity; and then we say, "I'll never be so foolish again." And we are not—until the next time.

What's the cure for this common disease? Well the best cure, as for all diseases, is prevention. Cure it before you have it. Don't let yourself get into this habit of mind. When you find yourself brooding over anything like this, take your mind by the scruff of the neck, as Achilles Bennett says, and put it on some other subject. Do this a hundred times, if necessary. You will never regret the effort.

"But what if the disease is already contracted?" some unhappy wife asks. Then the same treatment, only more so. When you have found that one of these ideas is utterly foolish, write down that fact and keep the document where you can see it—the next attack starts. Don't let your mind get your way. Nip things in the bud. And don't give yourself time to brood. Keep busy, doing and playing and being happy. When you feel an attack coming on, go out into God's outdoors and try to absorb some of its joy. Take a long walk; try to get your body full of vim; you will get some of the benefit. Call on some cheerful friend who will give you the contagion of his optimism, or visit a day nursery. Unfortunate than you whose real troubles, all these your imaginary ones.



FIRST AID TO INJURED HEARTS

By Laura Jane Libbey

HAPPENINGS AT HOTELS

Copyright 1912, by Laura Jean Libbey.

It has often been said that people meet where hills and mountains don't, and this is particularly true of those whose only chance of seeing new faces is by making their home at hotels. The lonely bachelor and widower, the spinster, and the widow are the ones who seem to catch the fever—each will have his own version as to why the hurly-burly and bustle is more appealing than quiet home life. The bachelor feels freer to come and go with no landlady keeping tab on his actions. The widower hopes to dispel his loneliness amid the bright, ever changing kaleidoscope of human life which shifts constantly before his gaze. The widow confesses to a romantic memory that brings her to the hotel. The unmarried woman hopes to meet her fate there.

There is no bothering with the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker for the woman who can live in luxury of the hotel. Nor is she troubled with careless servants. True, she has only a suite of rooms instead of a whole house; but in that case she has less to worry about. She can put on her prettiest robe in the morning without a thought or a care.

It is all very well for the woman of family to indulge in home life, but the unmarried one feels a thousandfold more contented in a hotel. If it storms she has no lack of entertainment, without having to call a cab or to use a street car to reach any scene of festivity. There are very few dull, moping people about a hotel. Each and every one seems to catch the spirit of contagious brightness. Almost before they are aware of it, in many instances, they find their entire natures changing. Where the woman has seldom laughed in her own home, she becomes a veritable sunbeam of merriment at the hotel board. The woman who has been wont to neglect her appearance, thinking that any old garment will do for the home, finds that this is just the opposite while living at the hotel. She must be carefully groomed. And then she has time hanging heavily on her hands, so she can attend a greater number of social pleasures.

The following letter speaks for itself:

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a single woman of 30, living with my widowed sister of 45. Save for each other we have no one in the world. We have no callers. Life is inexpressibly dreary. Do you think it would be advisable for us to go to a good hotel to board? Do you suppose there would be a possibility of my meeting congenial people there? We have a fair income, but it takes it all for household expenses, which is a steep price to pay for loneliness, don't you think so? We have an opportunity to rent our house to good people. MISS D."

I think the change would be beneficial as well as agreeable. It is monotony which wears people's lives out of gear with the world. A year of hotel life will make almost any woman appreciate home life and its comforts, which are found nowhere else on earth. Loneliness is a rust which corrodes too many lives. There is always a round of pleasant happenings.

ANSWERS

ISN'T HE RUDE?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am desperately in love with a young fellow two years my senior. He seems to care for me when we are alone, but when in company he will always say 'You are all right except that your feet aren't mates.' Request him not to say that if it displeases you. The better way will be to ignore his rude remark. He probably thinks he is extremely witty. The poor fellow doesn't know better.

NORA RATHLOU OUT ON BOND; HUSBAND IN JAIL

Society women went to the rescue of the supposed Countess Nora Rathlou yesterday and late in the afternoon she was released from the county jail where she has been held since February 4 charged with larceny larceny as bailee and obtaining money under false pretenses. Count Viggo is still in jail to answer to the same charges.

Mrs. Eleanor J. Hagerman, wife of Percy Hagerman who is well known in business and social circles and Mrs. Susan Smit of Broadmoor also prominent in society yesterday signed a bond for $1,000 as a guarantee that the countess will be on hand when her case is called for trial in the district court May 2.

The count and countess are represented by Attorneys Lombard and Ruby but neither would say yesterday what the countess proposes to do in the three weeks that intervene before her trial. It is said however that she may reopen a beauty parlor and continue with lessons she is alleged to have contracted to give a number of Colorado Springs women several months ago. The countess was arrested in Ogden Utah for failure to complete courses in beauty doctoring in this city.

Since the arrest of the couple and their return to Colorado Springs much has been written about them. Rathlou it is said is the son of Baron C. F. E. von Holstein Rathlou of Rathlousdal Odder, Denmark who tired of the social life at his home and came to America several years ago.

The countess then the wife of Dr. Roy A. M. Collins met Rathlou in Portland Ore. and they were subsequently married.

The countess is just an irresponsible child said Mrs. Smit yesterday in speaking of her action in signing the bond and her husband seems to be a worthy fellow. They should have another chance for both are deserving. It was through Billy Collins the countess' 7-year old boy that I became interested in his mother and stepfather. I have had Billy with me twice every week of late or since he was taken from the jail to the day nursery. I cannot believe that any woman who has brought such a child into the world and trained him as he has been trained, is a bad woman."

BANQUET POSTPONED

The annual banquet of the Apollonian club of Colorado college which was to have been given April 19 has been postponed to April 30. It will be given at the Cliff house in Manitou and special cars will be run for the accommodation of the members and their guests. The date was changed in order not to conflict with the presentation of the operetta, "A Nautical Knot" to be given for the benefit of the Colorado College Athletic association.

ACTUAL STREET PAVING STARTS

MORE THAN 100 MEN AND HORSES ARE ENGAGED

Improvements This Year Already in Sight Total Million and Quarter

The beginning of the street paving work yesterday marks the commencement of more than one million dollars worth of improvements to be made in Colorado Springs and vicinity during the [illegible] months.

The year has started exceptionally well and in structural work and [illegible] improvement it promises to be the busiest in the history of the city. There will be more work for mechanics and laborers here than [illegible] years to say nothing of the usual [illegible] activity incidental to the regular [illegible] business. This work also has started and within a week or two there will be no reason why any laborer in the Pikes Peak region cannot find a job at good wages.

One million dollars is a low estimate on the work to be done improvements aggregating almost that amount being in progress already.

Following is a list of improvements already under way or planned for the immediate future.

Partial List Improvements

Paving district No. 1	$ 130,000
Street railway expenses [illegible] side paving	1 [illegible] 000
Modern Woodmen sanatorium (in progress)	200,000
New High school buildings	275,000
Public utilities corporations extensions placing wires underground, et	175,000
Boys' dormitory Deaf and Blind school	60,000
C. W. Kurle, apartment on East Platte avenue	30,000
New Princess theater, by C. S. Gambrill	30,000
G. A. Taff, storerooms South Tejon and East Pikes Peak	50,000
Frank E. Johnson apartment, Boulder Crescent	20,000
City in parking district No. 1	50,000
Park commission, estimated work	10,000
E. M. Kirschner, addition to block	10,000
Garage at 15 North Nevada	25,000
Nichols estate
Tourist Memorial church, South Nevada avenue	10,000
Total	$1,205,000

The greatest of these improvements the paving work was started yesterday when a force of nearly 100 men and about as many horses were put to work plowing the east side of Tejon street, between Bijou and Boulder. As soon as the earth is plowed up it is loaded into heavy dump wagons and hauled off to other streets to be spread and leveled by the street department.

A small quantity of the earth is being used to level North Weber street above St. Vrain, and some of it to level Dale street between Tejon and Nevada. However, most of the dirt will be hauled to West Huerfano street where 19,000 square yards will be used to raise the level of the street between Monument creek and McKinley place.

Force to Be Tripled

As soon as the work is well under way the force of men will be more than tripled some working for the telephone company and the street railway, but most of them being employed by the Hill company.

Commencing today the street railway company will start to substitute its rails in the paving district with 72-pound rails, and while this work is in progress the service will be interfered with to some extent. Now the company is using only the west track on North Tejon street, and as soon as the new rails are laid and the paving is done on the east side, the cars will use only the east track until the work can be completed on the other side. This arrangement interferes with the schedule to some extent, but it is unavoidable. For the time being the Santa Fe and Wahsatch cars will run to Tejon street and then turn back instead of going around the loop, as usual. Other changes will be made as the work progresses.

Of the list of improvements named only one is doubtful, that being the new building at the Deaf and Blind school, for which the legislature appropriated $60,000. While it is not known whether the state can pay this appropriation, Governor Shafroth recently informed Superintendent W. K. Argo he has hopes that it will be available.

Besides the improvements mentioned in the list, several apartment houses and small store buildings will probably be erected this year.

RESIDENCE C. P. DODGE IS SOLD TO D. D. CASEMENT

Clarance P. Dodge yesterday sold through Wills, Spackman and Kent, his residence at 1515 Wood avenue to D. D. Dillon Casement, who has been occupying the house for several months, the consideration being about $15,000.

The house is a 12-room, frame building, two and one-half stories high, thoroughly modern, and is situated on a lot 75x190 feet. There is a small out-building on the rear of the lot. The location is in the finest residence district in the city, and both residence and grounds are in excellent condition.

Mr. Casement is a former resident of Ohio, and has been [illegible] with his three here for the last four years.

DEAN PARSONS TALKS IN PERKINS HALL TONIGHT

Dean Edward S. Parsons of Colorado college will give another of the extension course lectures, on "Glimpses of Shakespeare," in Perkins hall tonight. Dean Parsons spent some time in England this year visiting the historic places of Shakespeare's life and examining important documents and manuscripts connected with the great poet. The lecture, which will be illustrated by 35 lantern slides, will deal largely with the human side of Shakespeare's life. The public is invited.

"Clean Up the Bowels and Keep Them Clean"

There are many remedies to be had for constipation, but the difficulty is to procure one that acts without violence. A remedy that does not perform by force what should be accomplished by persuasion is Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets. After using them, Mr. N. A. Waddell, 315 Washington St., Waco, Tex., says:

"Almost all my life I have been troubled with constipation and have tried many remedies, all of which seemed to cause pain without giving much relief. I finally tried Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and found them an excellent remedy. Their action is pleasant and mild and their chocolate taste makes them easy to take. I am more than glad to recommend them."

"Clean up the bowels and keep them clean," is the advice of all physicians, because they realize the danger resulting from habitual constipation. Do not delay too long, but begin proper curative measures.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are a new remedy for this old complaint, and a great improvement over the cathartics you have been using in the past. They taste like candy and work like a charm. A trial will convince you.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory after trial, return the box to your druggist and he will return your money. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

AGAINST CLOSING CHEYENNE AVENUE

At a meeting of about [illegible] residents of the northeastern part of the city last night at the M. E. church South a protest was entered against the plans for the proposed High school plant closing Cheyenne avenue. Those present signed the protest and a committee of 11 was named to secure more signatures.

The Rev. Ira Barnett, pastor of the M. E. church, South called the meeting to order. E. G. Davis proprietor of the Elite laundry was elected chairman, with Attorney R. L. Chambers as secretary.

Many speeches were made and with one exception all were in favor of keeping the avenue open. The one exception was Chas. P. Bennett who spoke in favor of closing the avenue. The chief reason advanced for leaving the thoroughfare open is the short cut for the people living in that section of the city to the downtown district. Those who spoke against the closing were J. F. Sanford, R. L. Chambers, the Rev. Ira Barnett, H. I. Reed, A. J. Lawton, F. C. F. Whitaker, Edward Stark and T. M. Fisher.

The committee to solicit more signatures to the protest is as follows: George M. Young, Edward Stark, the Rev. Ira Barnett, R. D. Munson, A. D. Holman, Theodore Fisher, Dr. G. W. Dickey, C. G. Wilhite, Burns Seeley, O. E. Buckman and the Rev. J. P. Hutchinson.

Another meeting will be held April 22 in the same church to hear the report of this committee.

LECTURES ON BEHALF OF "INTERNATIONAL PEACE"

William C. Allen formerly of this city and now living in San Jose, Cal., spoke yesterday afternoon in Palmer hall, Colorado college on "International Peace." He is a prominent lecturer on behalf of worldwide cessation of war and armed peace policies. He discussed the question more from the industrial than the moral side and emphasized the fact that the United States is spending 72 per cent of its annual income in preparation for war. He showed that the money necessary to construct one battleship would build 300 Y. M. C. A. buildings, costing $40,000 each. One explosion of a 14-inch gun costs $1,700, a sum that will send a boy nearly through a four years' course at college, he said.

The lecture traced the high cost of living to the great cost of armed peace in the United States which in most countries is nearly as costly as war, and showed how the war policies of this country affected the pocketbook of the American citizen.

"The old theory that war increases the vitality of the men of the country has been shown to be false," said Mr. Allen, "for statistics prove that the warlike nation of today becomes the decadent nation of tomorrow. The great statesmen, bankers, merchants, churchmen, labor and fraternal organizations, and even army officers are looking for some way to bring about international arbitration. Many feel that our rise to further greatness will be retarded and perhaps prevented by our more active policy of armed peace. War always has been disastrous to the national finances, morals, ideals and human life of the country."

MORE ROOM NEEDED AT H. S. BUILDING

Board of Education Points Out Serious Condition. Plans at Standstill

A discussion of the immediate need of further High school accommodations and the necessity of starting work at once on the new plant took up the time at a special meeting of the school board last night.

The present High school building was planned to accommodate 700 pupils but as the community grew the attendance increased, until at present more than 800 are enrolled. The rooms have been crowded up and the building is so crowded that it could not accommodate 10 more pupils.

The question has been allowed to remain dissolved for such a long time that it has become serious and something must be done immediately or the school will be in serious straits by the next term, say the members of the board.

The architects reported that they can go no further towards restoring the present building to its normal condition until some definite general plan is adopted for them to work on, and since there are protests against both plans submitted, and it is said that there will be protests against the third plan now being drawn matters are at a standstill.

The boilers in the present building are entirely too small to fill requirements and the room in which they have been installed is too small to accommodate them. A new boiler room must be constructed immediately but nothing can be done until the general plan is decided upon.

When the school board ordered the plans for the new High school plant drawn some time ago it was the intention of the members to start the work in the near future and have the buildings in such shape by the beginning of the fall term this year that they would be able to accommodate as many as enrolled. However, the protests against the different plans have tied the hands of the board, and unless some definite action is taken immediately, a number of pupils probably will have to be turned away from the High school next term.

Mr. Dreisbach Recommends Palm Beach County Lands

Joplin, Mo., April 3, 1912.

Bryan & Greenwood, Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen: Just returned from an extended trip to West Palm Beach and other points of interest on the east coast of Florida, and can truthfully say I was delightfully surprised to find such a steady influx of people from the northern states, a rapid development in both towns and rural districts along most substantial lines and climate that is seldom equaled anywhere, taking it the year round.

Your representatives at West Palm Beach seemed eager at all times to explain everything in detail, refused us nothing and showed us a very pleasant time.

The trip to the demonstration farm which is located on your land, capped the climax and easily crumbled any suspicion that may have been nursed in skeptical minds that the land is not capable of growing all your literature claims and more. The land is high and dry and ready for the plow any time.

The auto ride through West Palm Beach and across the bridge to Royal Park, after visiting Lucerne, convinced me beyond all possible doubt that it is a question of only a short time when Lucerne will be clothed abundantly with the beautiful tropical fruits, foliage, parks and drives that are now seen in West Palm Beach as the climatic conditions are identical and only six miles south and fronting on Lake Worth.

Apparently there is no visible reason why this particular section of west Palm Beach should not grow in big strides and lead other points on the east coast of Florida.

A lot in Lucerne is bound to be worth the price now asked for the five-acre tract of land and the town lot one year from now. The natural advantages, including the inland water way, the East Coast railroad which will be ballasted and double-tracked by another year—together with nearly 7,000 owners of lots in Lucerne, is bound to make a town.

I unhesitatingly recommend this proposition to anyone who wishes to invest where their money will be doubled in less than two years' time.

Yours very truly,

M. T. DREISBACH.

MANY FRIENDS GATHER AT GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Allen, 516 North Custer street, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fraser 915 North Spruce street with a reception yesterday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Two hundred and twenty-five announcements were issued and more than 100, including another daughter Mrs. Robert Smith of Denver were in attendance.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Allen who are 69 and 67 years of age, respectively, are in the best of health, and say they expect to celebrate many more wedding anniversaries. They have lived in this city two years coming here from Topeka, Kan.

They were married in Troy, Ia. April 8, 1862 when the groom was 19, and the bride, 17 years of age. Mr. Allen says he had tried previously at two different times to enlist in the army and serve in the Civil war, but had been rejected on account of his age. After he married he applied again and was accepted serving throughout the remainder of the war with the Thirteenth Iowa infantry.

The betting was 10 to 8 on M Vey The fight opened at a fast pace In the second round Langford and Mc Vey [illegible] which M Vey protested [illegible] he pos- itively interfered barring kidney punches in the clinches Langford had some what the better of the first few rounds and the betting veered to 2 to 1 in his favor Both men put up a savage fight and the referee was constantly engaged in separating them

By clever sparring M Vey managed to keep his stronger adversary off until after the seventeenth round when the furious pace began to tell on both Langford was in the better condition at the end although not good enough to land a knockout

The spectators cheered the referee's decision and were delighted at what they consider a hard and fairly fought battle

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, April 8.—The stock market today resumed its activity and advanced. The rise was very irregular, being punctuated by frequent pauses and setbacks from profit taking and renewed assaults by the short interests.

The market was encouraging over the definite settlement of the English coal strike and week-end advices from domestic points emphasized the week's reports of general business betterment. This was indicated in the statements of railway traffic managers and in another advance in prices of steel bars and tin plate.

United States Steel and Union Pacific were the leaders of the early movement, with gains of 1 and 2 points in more than a score of other issues. New high records for the year were established by some standard securities.

By midday when a total of more than 500,000 shares had changed hands, Steel and Union Pacific reflected the effects of heavy selling by going under last week's closing quotations with increased heaviness in the coppers. Reading and Lehigh Valley took the lead with extensive buying of both issues to the accompaniment of rumors that the long deferred decision of the United States supreme court in the Reading case soon might be rendered. The assignment by the court of the so-called intermountain rate cases over to the full term was something of a disappointment.

Transactions in the late session were below those of the morning and prices evinced a tendency to yield, except in the coalers and minor specialties. In the final dealings a demand for American Smelting and Rock Island common and preferred imparted a degree of activity.

Call money did not get above 14 per cent and supply was in excess of demand. Time rates hardened partly in response to out-of-town withdrawals and some further strengthening of local reserves.

The monthly report of the Copper Producers association to be issued tomorrow, promises to be interesting because of the rise during March in the metal and the leading copper securities. On the following day the United States Steel corporation will publish its figures of "unfilled tonnage for March." These are expected to show a decrease.

The bond market was irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,282,000.

United States government bonds were unchanged on call.

FORMER COLORADOAN DEAD

DENVER, April 8.—Orsino Brand, formerly vice president of the Northern Colorado Coal & Coke company, died Saturday at his home in El Paso, N. Y., to which place he removed after resigning his place with the Colorado corporation. Mr. Brand was well known in Denver during his residence here because of his prominence in matters associated with the northern part of the state. Twenty years ago he left Denver and was since retired in California. He was about 60 years old and his widow and two daughters survive him.

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, April 8.—A downward whirl of more than 2 cents a bushel in the price of May wheat today was taken by many speculators to indicate that the former bull leaders had been discouraged by the trade and the public. At the end of the session the market option was but little more than nominal relatively then either of the new crop futures. The close was steady at ¼@¾ to ⅝c lower than Saturday night. Corn finished ⅛ to ⅝@⅝c down, oats off ⅜@½ to ⅝c and provisions 10c to 15c cheaper.

The general tone of wheat was heavy because of the fine weather and the big world shipments. Although the action of the May delivery was the main feature for the bulk of business was in July and had a tardish swing, as a result to a large extent of unlooked for huge clearances from the Danube. July ranged from 96⅜ to 97⅝c, with last sales ⅜@½c off at 96⅝@⅞c.

Corn suffered because the principal commission house on the bull side sold heavily and were followed by several leading operators. The main incentive aside from unseasonable weather was the fact that as in the case of wheat the Danube had furnished a surprise shipments from there being of remarkable bulk. May fluctuated between 75⅝ and 77c, closing steady at 76⅜c, a loss of 1⅛@⅝c compared with 48 hours before. Cash grades were weak. No. 2 yellow was noted at 77@77½c for carlots.

Transactions in oats again centered chiefly in September, dealers counting July an old crop month because of the lateness of the season. Price changes followed the course of corn.

September ranged from 43⅛ and 42⅝c with the close ⅜@½c net lower at 43c even.

Floods in the south, which are interfering with the cash meat trade to some extent, had a weakening influence on provisions. The outcome was 7½@10 to 15c backset for pork with the rest of the list down but not beyond 5@7½c.

A Colorado Springs citizen's statement forms convincing proof.

It's local testimony. It can be investigated.

Mrs. A. M. McCloy, 410 S. Weber St., Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I can give Doan's Kidney Pills a strong recommendation as they relieved me of backache in my back that had been so bad that I could hardly move. My supply of Doan's Kidney Pills was procured from the Hutcher Drug Co., and I am grateful to them for the improvement they have made."

FOR ALL MEN AND WOMEN

I will give you free a sample of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, that have brought health and happiness to thousands, and a book on any chronic disease you need.

The story of my free offer to you is quickly told. During my many years of practice I have used numerous combinations of curative medicines for liver ills. I have kept record of results in case after case, so that my staff of physicians and surgeons, at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., are able to diagnose and treat cases at a distance with uniform good results. I am going to send you free a sample package of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which will relieve biliousness and ill health due to a disordered liver. Write at once for a sample or a book.

But for the permanent relief of blood disorders and impurities, I can recommend my "Golden Medical Discovery"—a blood medicine without alcohol.—R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Nature's Way Is The Best.

Buried deep in our American forests we find bloodroot, queen's root, mayapple and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grape root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a pure glycerin extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and other organs in Nature's own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require.

Dr. Pierce says:—"Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang on coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken." Sold by all principal dealers in medicines.

To find out more about the above mentioned diseases and all about the body in health and disease, get the Common Sense Medical Adviser the People's Schoolmaster in Medicine revised and up-to-date book of 1000 pages which treats of diseased conditions and their practical, successful treatment thereof. Cloth-bound sent post-paid on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINES

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 8.—The March output from the active mines of the United Gold Mines company, the Wild Horse, Silver Tip, Deadwood, Trail and Trachyte on Bull hill, and the Ironclad hill group, consisting of the Damon, W. P. H., and Montrose, mines produced in excess of 2,100 tons of ore, with an average value of about one ounce gold to the ton.

About 20 sets of lessees are at work and the April production will show increase. On the Montrose, Herron and Young have recently opened up a promising ore shoot at a depth of 300 feet and are breaking four feet of ore that will ship not less than 50 tons a week. Fogleman and Roach on the W. P. H. are shipping a milling grade ore to the Golden Cycle mill and Cox and company on the Damon group are also producing from that Ironclad hill mine.

The Six Points.

Chillson and Polly, lessees on the Six Points marketed about 400 tons of ore last month with an average value of two ounces gold to the ton. The lessees are now drifting on the vein at the 700-foot level to get under the shoot.

Portland Leased Ground.

The ground to be leased by the Portland Gold Mining company, situate on the northern limits of the estate on Bull hill, consists of the northern portions of the Last Effort, Colorado City, Hawkeye, Buckeye and Wisconsin, part of the Hardscrabble Nos. 1 and 2, and Lost Anna claims. These properties are located at the extreme northern end of the estate, but in all probability some of the ground will be reserved for operation on company account. There will be many applications for leases filed and the ground to be leased promises to become active in a short time. No work at surface has been attempted on these properties since the Portland company acquired control.

St. Thomas Shipping.

Ore was loaded out yesterday from the Requa Savage mine on Beacon hill by the One Hundred and One Mining company, a Denver corporation operating under lease. The ore shipped mined from the edge of a new shoot was of milling grade.

The same company also is operating the St. Thomas mine adjoining the Requa Savage property.

Mary McKinney M. Co.

The MaryMcKinney company and its lessees produced and marketed between 1,150 and 2,000 tons of ore during March. The bulk of the ore mined by the company from the new veins and ore shoots at the bottom or 800-foot level, was of high average grade.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Tells How She Keeps Her Health and Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich. — "I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house.

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to your wonderful medicine." —Mrs. J. G. Jonkerson, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 8.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for woman's ills known.

ATTRACTIVE NUMBER OF Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE

John B. Ratto, the impersonator, will appear at the Opera house tonight as an attraction on the Y. M. C. A. Star course.

Mr. Ratto's impersonations are for the most part humorous, and have made a decided hit wherever he has given them. He is a lightning make-up artist, and his characters are exceptionally good. It is probable that he will impersonate several prominent local men tonight.

OPENING NEW STREET

The work of opening the new street between Cascade avenue and Sierra Madre street, 66 feet north of Huerfano, has been started under the direction of the Antlers Hotel company. The opening of this street will make extensive changes in the parking scheme south of the Antlers, the details of which were published in The Gazette several months ago, and will mean an expenditure of several thousands of dollars. The street will be 30 feet wide, with a concrete sidewalk on the north side. In all probability the strip of land between it an Huerfano street, owned by B. G. Robbins, will not be improved this year.

COLLEGE CARDS ON SALE

Why Women Are Not RICH.

Man is a millionaire many times over in the possession of blood cells. Woman is not quite so rich, for scientists have proven that the normal man has five million—the woman only four and a half million to a cubic millimetre of blood.

A deficiency in number of red blood corpuscles—and a person "looks pale," in fact, is anemic, the blood does not get the right food and probably the stomach is disordered.

Dr. R. V. Pierce found years ago that a glycerine extract of golden seal root, queen's root and bloodroot with black cherry bark, would help digestion of the food in the stomach, correct liver ills and in Nature's own way increase the red blood corpuscles. This extract was called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By enriching the food eaten the system is nourished and the blood takes on a rich red color. Nervousness is only "the cry of the starved nerves for food," and when the nerves are fed on rich red blood the pains, fears, irritability, dizziness, tired feelings, all at night and is refreshed in the morning.

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acrid fluid, which forces out these impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a slight bruise or scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected with impurities which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S. S. S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Rheumatism, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruptions or diseases. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.
